~~against Hanover Supervisor and GOP challenger Scott Wyatt. Wyatt claimed victory during~~ what backers of Delegate Peace say was an invalid convention held in early May. Wyatt, for his part, is appealing a last minute decision in early May to hold a primary instead of a convention and the 1st Congressional District Committee passed a motion Thursday evening upholding Wyatt's appeal of the convention cancellation. The vote was 7-4 with one member abstaining.

Information about the primary had been removed from the events section of the Republican Party of Virginia website Friday. Peace, late Thursday saying that the primary was still on "per the Republican Party of Virginia's website." and a party staff member told Newsradio WRVA that a meeting had been held Thursday night and staffers ordered not to speak to the media about the primary.

If the high ranking party source is correct, there will be one polling place in each county. In Hanover voting is scheduled to take place at VFW Post 9808 at 7168 Flag Lane in Mechanicsville. In New Kent County voting is set to take place at George Watkins Elementary School at 6501 New Kant Highway in Quinton. In King William County the voting site is King William Ruritan Park at 156 Ruritan Lane. Voting is supposed to run from 10am to 4pm.
